- I. Welcome/Introductions:
Palmer welcomed everyone and introduced Jim West who will be replacing David Salazar at DHRM on the ADR Committee.
- II. Updates:
 - a. Bob Haywood, ADR Council Member, will be retiring on July 26, 2005. His retirement party will be held from 1-4 in the afternoon at the Human Services building for all those who would like to attend. Adam Trupp will be replacing him on the Council.
 - b. UCCR Symposium 2006
Palmer will be the chair of the UCCR Symposium in 2006. He will be sending an email requesting ideas for themes and topics by the end of July. A focus group will be held on August 10 there will be a focus group to get input at the Law and Justice Center.
 - c. Federal Bill for Mediation.
Craig Call met with Senator Orin Hatch about the difficult process of land acquisition with the federal government. He would like a federal bill for mediation that will apply to all agencies and if successful Utah may be the model for all agencies.
 - d. Update of Mediation Work.
DWS has two mediations this month.
 - e. Brown Bag Lunches:
Susan asked for suggestions to improve the brown bag lunches:
Provide more movies at the brown bag lunches.
Hold the lunch once a month to give people to a better chance to go.
Is it necessary to train people to speak?
Should we advertise more?
Should we review our own agencies for interest?
 - e. Killman Conflict Questionnaire
Susan gave the Killman Conflict Questionnaire to the Council.
- III. Upcoming Meetings – No Meeting in August
See you on September 14, 2005
